THE LAMP

1964

Lasell Junior College
Auburndale, Massachusetts

Digitized by the Internet Archive

<https://archive.org/details/lamp1964lase>

In the endless span of man's existence there are those few who, with self-determination and sincere devotion, reached out to open doors to a New Frontier. One such man, John Fitzgerald Kennedy will remain immortal in men's minds. As he brought light to the world, so others brought light and life to us.

In dedicating this yearbook, we wish to give recognition to two very special people who first opened our door to this light and inspiration. Who could have inspired us more than they? Who could have encouraged us and given us hope and determination more than they? Who could have given us more love and understanding? Only they who have given us these two memorable years at Lasell.

For these two years mark a beginning as well as an end. Their hearts are filled with pride; our hearts are filled with affection. For though there be new doors and new frontiers, we can look backward with satisfaction and forward with confidence. The path is there; the light reveals it. Humble, yet determined, we, with sincere thanks and everlasting love, dedicate this, our yearbook, to you, Mom and Dad.

The course of her life, as contemplated by each of us in retrospect, is ephemeral in nature. To trace her progress or regression, however, each inevitably must associate it with the concrete. These successive concrete markers can be likened to doors: doors opened . . . doors closed . . . doors ignored . . . doors contemplated . . . doors not for our entry.

For we, the students, our lives were consciously bounded by doors. These doors at Lasell, once opened wide for our entry, have now been traversed, and are closed behind us. Never can we step back through them . . . But would we really want to?
. . . too many wait
for us ahead.

This book will be your Lamp —
a guide to reawaken
your memory to the way through the doors once more;
only through memory will the doors
behind open again for you.

Theirs is to light the torch . . .

The Guidance so vital...

Miss Marie R. Kaden
Director of Admissions

Miss Muriel R. McClelland
*Assistant Dean
and
Director of Physical Education*

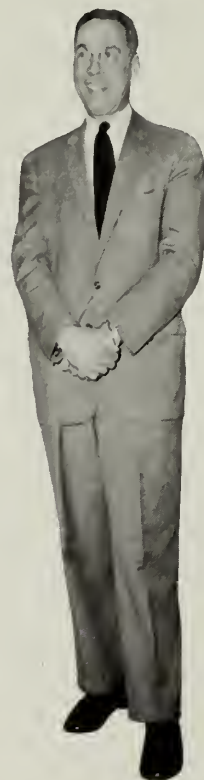

There are many diverse jobs behind every student's enrollment to the college which will mold their lives; to tabulate and acknowledge each would be an endless job, with an amazing sum total of effort expended for each person. Who is to say where the greatest service lies? Who is to say which single act changed the course of whose life? Let it be enough for us to realize that though we view these individuals' jobs as one large contribution, it is the innumerable services of each which few are aware of, that are of the major importance.

Now the moment is nearly at hand to congratulate you on your graduation from Lasell, to tell you how happy we are to welcome you to lifelong membership in the alumnae body of this College, and to remind you that now and henceforth we are all partners together in an enterprise that never exhausts its challenge — service in behalf of Lasell Junior College and continuing affection for it.

President

Blake Tenksbury

Since the dawn of civilization, mankind has been fascinated by the concept of Time. Now we learn that a man hurtling through space to some remote solar system will actually age less rapidly than his identical twin who remains prosaically behind. So Time continues to tantalize us, and we earthbound creatures live out our days inextricably caught up in its mysterious flow.

This 1964 LAMP is an attempt to capture between the covers of a book two years of that elusive, quicksilver dimension in which we exist. Five years from now — or ten or twenty-five or fifty — 1962-1964 at Lasell will remain somehow crystallized within these pages: that day when, as bewildered freshmen, you registered for classes, the Christmas banquet, the announcement of your own class officers, Pops and the May Cotillion, and finally Class Night, the Torchlight Parade and Commencement. All these memories and many more are locked forever within this, your yearbook, and we hope that Time, whatever its powers, can never take away from you the warmth and pleasure evoked by this issue of the LAMP.

Miss "Mac"

YEAH

Mr. Mignosa

YEAH

Miss Ford

YEAH

Mrs. Towers

Two years here — they've affected us;

College Government Association

But have we affected you, Lasell?

The rewards of government from within . . . The members become a consolidated effort for each individual's desires: maturity, honor, integrity, college unity . . . A part of their work is directed toward campus activities, but their major function is to turn student ideas into college action.

SENIOR OFFICERS

To capture our two years on paper; to bring together the many aspects of our college lives; to crystallize this segment of each individual's personal history—These are the activities which give reason to our yearbook and the Lamp Staff.

ADVISER: Mr. Mignosa.

ART AND LAYOUT: Jan Slocum, Sue Dahlberg (Editor), Betty Anne Young, Sue Nelson. 111

Quill

Some have undertaken what was offered; some have ignored offers;

The creative side of the Lasell student, amassed into one work . . . The staff is merely the machinery: the student body, the producer.

FIRST ROW: Margaret Casey, Assistant Editor; Cheryl Butters, Assistant Editor; Barb Zink, Editor; Carla Valentine, Assistant Editor; Sue Dahlberg, Art Editor.

Lasell News

The voice of the students, in acclaim or in protest . . . The editorials, the campus news, the coming events—the issues so important to the students and thus to the college.

Orphean Club

some have tried to offer; and some have bucked outright.

The creative, constructive body . . . providing pleasurable diversion from the everyday college existence through song . . . Joy and relaxation for the singer; warmth and inspiration for the listener.

Workshop Players

(Life always takes a pattern, though.)

FIRST ROW: Leslie Rich, Lucy Schlaes, Arlene Ferreira (Secretary), Sandra Hardy (President), Nancy King (Vice-President), Anne DeArment, Bunnie Bishop. SECOND ROW: Laurie Bullot, Ruth DeWitt, Sandy Scantlebury, Marie Coven, Carla Valentine, Sue Dahlberg, Kirsten Hersloff, Bev Pembroke.

The stage . . . magic for the players and audience alike—where emotions are portrayed, transcend, and are shared together . . . startling, heart-warming enactment of the bittersweet "Cradle Song" . . . hilarious, happy-go-lucky presentation of "The Boyfriend" . . . a well-planned juxtaposition of two media of the theatre of America.

Lamplighters

Our double quartet of specially gifted entertainers . . . An active unique talent thoroughly enjoyed by all of Lasell and the many others willingly served by the Lamplighters.

Sibyl Ryan, Lois Stoker, Karen Murphy, Claire Monahan (Leader), Kathy Germanov, Sandy Perkins, Sue Layng, Carol Bradley.

Modern Dance Club

Dispite high school visions of many uncertainties, all have acclimated — many quite happily.)

The development of the imagination into dance . . . Creation and perfection: an awareness of the creative grace of the body—strenuous, diligent work to perfect this grace.

Debbie Smith, Terry Fleming, Robin Paulding, Nina Dotterer (Costume Chairman), Dianne Koenig, Ellen Hackman, Sue Kaplan (Secretary), Lisette deMiranda (President).

Lasell Community Club

Service to others and not just the self: The needs of the community, its hospital, its needy, brought into the hands of those who possess the desire to help, to serve—strengthening their own values while providing substantial aid to the surrounding community.

Nurses Association

Many activities united us;

The goal of unity of the nurse and her field, strengthened through the group's communication with other schools, other groups . . . Thus the developing nurse has a foreglimpse of her life after training.

FIRST ROW: Pat Haggerty, Elaine Slefinger, Dorothy Hodgson (Recording Secretary), Sue Miller (President), Debbie Werner (Corresponding Secretary), Gay Walsh (Treasurer), DeeDee Hanley, Sharon Beattie. SECOND ROW: Betsy Clapp, Gretchen Boyer, Marsha Graziano, Ronda Fischer, Cheryl Douglass, Beth Perkins, Carol Bruins, Ellen Bond, Margaret Waugh. CAP AND GOWN

1964

TUNE: "The Halls of Ivy"

Words by: Joy Martin

Ursula Murdock

As our college days are over
After two years at Lasell,
We take with us the memories
Of the school we loved so well.

We must part with many friends here
As we go our separate ways,
But the memories and the friendships
Will remain for all our days.

To parents go our love
In this our special hour,
For they have made all this come true for us.
We thank the faculty
For all that they have done
When in their guiding hands we placed our trust.

We are soon to leave Lasell now
As we stand in cap and gown;
The Class of Nineteen Sixty-Four
Will cherish all we've found.

Autumn Antics

Along with the annual Fall Dance of Lasell's Autumn, this year brought the spice of the current craze: the Hootenanny (a type of entertainment so capable of fun for every guy and gal, it may outlive the "fad" stage). The contrast of the two nights' fun made our weekend "a special time" for so many.

The glow of Christmas

Celebration of Christmas at Lasell renews the same, giddy happiness every year . . . 1964 was no exception—anticipation of things to come, the realization that Christmas affects people everywhere (college included) as it has us in our isolated home life since childhood, the satisfaction of one third of the year's studies behind us . . . all add an "extra" to each day of this special time that makes premature Christmas away from home all that it is.

The lure of winter

What could equal the fun of "howling a little" away from Lasell but actually with Lasell, for Lasell is its people! The White Mountains become a retreat from the intellectual retreat of exam period . . . all the pressures go flying as the skiers go flying, down the slopes and through several days of spirited, flippant snow-play.

Miss Phyllis Rhyno
Editor-in-Chief
The Lamp
Lasell Junior College
Auburndale 66, Massachusetts

Dear Miss Rhyno:

Thank you for your recent letter. I want to express my sincere appreciation to your class for dedicating their yearbook in memory of the President.

I regret to advise you that the law does not provide for the use of the Presidential Seal in such publications, as it is restricted entirely for official use by the Executive Branch of the government.

I would appreciate your sending me a copy of the book when it is published, as it will be included in the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library in Boston.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy
